

Post-Doctoral Psychologist and License Eligible Individual & Family Therapist

Location:

- Lynchburg, VA

Summary: Virginia Family Therapy (VFT) is actively recruiting full time and part time child, adolescent, adult, family, and couples post-doctoral psychologists and license eligible therapists to join our expanding team providing outpatient therapy.

VFT believes that individuals and families thrive when they feel good in their relationships, are active and work hard, and are part of their larger community. We also understand that this is easier said than done! The therapists at Virginia Family Therapy strive to help clients get there by providing a warm and supportive atmosphere while also offering solutions and encouraging change.

Who: Post-doctoral psychologists, psychologists, and license eligible therapists, social workers, mental health counselors, and marriage and family counselors.

About VFT: Virginia Family Therapy is a growing mental health practice that focuses on helping individuals, families, and our community. We are a private pay practice offering competitive compensation. The strength of VFT lies in the diverse backgrounds and specialties of our clinicians as well as the collaboration and support of our team. We prioritize the human connection, from the moment a potential client contacts us to the moment they complete treatment. We offer therapy in the setting most comfortable to the client (a favorite is our popular “walk and talks”!). Best of all, our team is collaborative, supportive, and fun to work with!

Benefits:

- Health, dental, and vision insurance (for eligible employees)
- Flexible schedule with excellent work life balance
- Outstanding earning potential
- Operation support including billing and scheduling
- Collaborative team approach with highly skilled psychiatrists and therapists
